DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. This application contains claims directed to more than one species of the generic invention. These species are deemed to lack unity of invention because they are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

The species are as follows:

Species I shown in Fig. 3;

Species II shown in Fig. 4

Species III shown in Fig. 5;

Species IV shown in Fig. 6;

Species V shown in Fig. 7;

Species VI shown in Fig. 8;

Species VII shown in Fig. 9;

Species VIII shown in Fig. 16;

Species IX shown in Fig. 17;

Species X shown in Figs. 18 and 19;

Species XI shown in Fig. 20;

Species XII shown in Fig. 21;

Species XIII shown in Fig. 22.

Applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single species to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. The reply must also identify the claims readable on the elected species, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered non-responsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

2. The claims are deemed to correspond to the species listed above in the following manner:

Claims 1-6, and 43-51 correspond to species I;
Claims 7-12, and 36-42 correspond to species II;
Claims 13-17 correspond to species VI;
Claims 18 and 19 correspond to species IV;
Claims 20-30 correspond to species V;
Claims 31-34 correspond to species X.

The following claim(s) are generic: none of the claims is generic.

3. The species listed above do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, the species lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons: the special technical feature of species I invention is the particular of the first mixing matrix means, the second mixing matrix means and the reverberant part of the response is weighted toward the front of the listener claimed therein

4. while the special technical feature of species II invention is the particular of a first series of early response filters and a second series of reverberant tail filters claimed therein

5. while the special technical feature of species VI invention is the particular of the filtering the stereo inputs using equations for Sum' and Diff' as claimed therein

6. while the special technical feature of species IV is the particular of applying separate HRTF for front and center channels and anti-phase HRTF for rear channels claimed therein

7. while the special technical feature of species V invention is the particular of feedback inputs as claimed therein

8. while the special technical feature of species X invention is the particular of binaural reverberation processor comprising at least one recursive filter structure and a series of FIR filters as claimed therein. Since the special technical feature of species I invention is not present in species II, VI, IV, V or X claims, and the special technical features of species II invention is not present in species I, VI, IV, V or X claims, and the special technical features of species VI invention is not present in species I, II, IV, V or X claims, and the special technical features of species IV invention is not present in species I, II, VI, V or X claims, and the special technical features of species V invention is not present in species I, II, VI, IV, or X claims, and the special technical features of species X invention is not present in species I, II, VI, IV, or V claims, unity of invention is lacking.

9. Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

10. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
